Turkish Ambassador thrilled with the Turkish House

H.E. Ahmet Tuta, Turkish Ambassador to Croatia, TINA President Oguz Aydemir, visited Bakar accompanied by President of Croatian-Turkish Friendship Society Esma Halepovic and Secretary of the Society Vesna Lukanovic, where he held meeting with Mayor Tomislav Klaric and his associates. Mayor Klaric acquainted Ambassador with a rich history of Bakar and a current situation in town. After reception, Ambassador made a tour of the old city of Bakar – out of all interesting and important sights he was mostly impressed by the Turkish House the exterior of which has been recently renovated, the interior will be renovated soon. Potential cultural and economic cooperation was also on the agenda. H.E. Ahmet Tuta has been recently appointed as Ambassador to Croatia. His first official visit was Gunja and Bakar was his first visit in the territory of Primorsko-goranska county.
